Breakout Questions

How much in-person teaching have you been doing?

What's going well with in-person teaching?

What is one need/challenge about returning to in-person teaching?

Check-Out: Note to Self

1. Grab a pen/pencil and two sticky notes (or pieces of paper).
2. Think back on the discussions we all just had, both in the breakout rooms and as a whole group.
3. On one sticky write down something you want to follow-up on, put into practice, explore further, or be reminded of from these discussions.
4. On your second sticky note write down something you are proud of from these last two years.
5. Place your finished sticky notes on your desk, computer, wall, or somewhere you will see them.
